Leslie:

Red Leaf has submitted an NOI to me for the change and all is in order. They have Cultural resources clearance from SITLA for the proposed 5-acre site. The bond amount you propose is acceptable. Thank you

John -

Red Leaf Resources is changing from a Exploration permit to a Small Mine permit. The acreage is the same (5 acre), but the new bond amount accounts for all equipment on site (and an increase for the water well, as they went deeper than they had anticipated). It is anticipated that they move to a large mine early next year. The new bond amount is $150,393. for
